Application must be postmarked by July 6, 2018, and mailed to:
Oklahoma Farm Bureau, Attn: Zac Swartz, YF&R Coordinator, 2501 N. Stiles, Oklahoma City, OK 73105

WHAT IS OYLA?

Oklahoma Youth Leading Agriculture is a unique three-day summer leadership conference hosted by the Oklahoma Farm Bureau Young Farmers and Ranchers for high school students completing their senior year in 2019. The Oklahoma City-based conference will include special leadership classes, exciting speakers, team building, fellowship, and industry tours. Selected students should be among the top, well rounded students in their class, and should have an interest in furthering their education at the post-secondary level.

WHEN AND WHERE IS OYLA?

OYLA will be held July 23-25, 2018 in Oklahoma City. Students will be housed together at a local hotel, along with student counselors and OKFB staff. Throughout the conference, OKFB will provide transportation to venues for tours, meals and team building exercises.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The cost to attend the conference is $100 per participant to be paid by the county Farm Bureau.

HOW DO I REGISTER?

OYLA applications are available at county Farm Bureau offices or may be downloaded at okfarmbureau.org/applications. To be considered for the program, applications must be completed and postmarked no later than July 6, 2018. Only one student per school will be accepted.

Applicants must provide the following materials along with the scholarship application:

- A copy of the applicant's current official high school transcript.
- A letter of reference.
- A current headshot.
