

About the Achievement Award

The Oklahoma Farm Bureau Young Farmers & Ranchers Achievement Award recognizes YF&R members who have excelled in their farm or ranch, and have taken an active role in Farm Bureau programs and activities. Participants are involved in production agriculture with a majority of their income subject to normal production risks. Judges evaluate competitors' excellence in management, growth and scope of their enterprise and self-initiative that have been displayed throughout the farm or ranch.

About this information sheet

The information requested in this applicant information sheet will be used by the OKFB YF&R committee to conduct the YF&R competitive events program. Applicants ages must be 18-35 to apply. The state-level award winner will complete the separate American Farm Bureau Achievement Award application to compete in the AFBF Achievement Award program.

The information will also be used by the OKFB Communications and Public Relations division to share the stories of the award winners.
