

About the Excellence in Agriculture Award

The Oklahoma Farm Bureau Young Farmers & Ranchers Excellence in Agriculture Award recognizes YF&R members who have a passion for agriculture, but who do not earn a majority of their income from an owned agriculture enterprise. Competitors are evaluated on their understanding of agricultural issues, leadership experiences and achievement, and their ability to communicate their agricultural story. A presentation of an applicant's agricultural involvement will be presented to a panel of judges and will serve as the basis for judging the competitive event.

About this information sheet

The information requested in this applicant information sheet will be used by the OKFB YF&R committee to conduct the YF&R competitive events program. Applicants must be ages 18-35 to compete. The state-level award winner will complete the separate American Farm Bureau Excellence in Agriculture Award application to compete in the AFBF awards program.

The information will also be used by the OKFB Communications and Public Relations division to share the stories of the award winners.
